

2024-2025 Certificate Courses

Booking Fall Certifications Now!

Join our experienced Environmental Education Team for immersive, hands-on courses at:

- Hillman Marsh Conservation Area
- John R. Park Homestead Conservation Area
- Holiday Beach Conservation Area
- Select Courses offered at your school/site, or virtually

Introduction to Wilderness Survival

Introduction to Stream Assessment

To book a program and for more information contact:

Jessica Rose
Environmental Educator
BSc. BEd
519-791-6952

or Email: education@erca.org

Certificate Courses

- Map/Compass/GPS
- Animal and Plant Management
- Environmental Awareness
- Habitat Restoration
- Watershed Management
- Geographic Information System (GIS)
- Compass/Map Global Positioning System (GPS)
- Wilderness Survival
- Introduction to Stream Assessment
- Leadership
- Customer Service
- Basic Tourism
- Curatorial Techniques
- Advanced Techniques in an Art Form – Blacksmithing
- Advanced Techniques in an Art Form - Basket Weaving
- Species Identification -Benthic Macroinvertebrates
- Species Identification - Birds (Raptors -Fall, Shorebirds - Spring)

Sample Schedule*

10:00am Arrival
 10:00am-11:15am Program Part 1
 11:15am-11:45am Lunch
 11:45am-1:00pm Program Part 2
 1:00pm Departure

Course Length: 2.5 Hours

Popular Pairings

1

Introduction to Stream Assessment
 &
 Species Identification - Benthic Macroinvertebrates

2

Compass/Map Global Positioning System (GPS)
 &
 Species Identification - Birds (Raptors- Fall, Shorebirds, Spring)

Basket Weaving and Blacksmithing

Program Fees:

$450.00 per course of up to 20 students.

Many courses can have two sessions running simultaneously.

*Schedule fully customizable to meet your school and transportation needs

Maximum 10 students for Blacksmithing and Weaving courses